Camps will fill fast. Secure your spot. Register Today! These one-week camps provide an unrivaled musical theatre experience. Our two musical performance camps have a free short audition placement workshop on Saturday, May 12th, that places students in appropriate roles. Musical camps and classes rotate through music, acting, and dance activities each day. The week concludes with a Performance Showcase at the end of the week for family and friends.

ACA Summer Theatre Camp strives to create a safe environment for all involved. We establish this environment through mutual respect for each other and placing value on the need to be able to take risks without fear of failure. In order to help create this environment, we have established a code of conduct. Violations of the code of conduct may result in disciplinary actions ranging from verbal warnings and parental notification to dismissal from camp.

Please review the following with your child:

• Respect of Others: Camp participants will respect the rights and feelings of the other participants. Fighting, bullying, name calling, intimidation, bigotry of any kind, inappropriate language or any other form of emotional or physical abuse will not be tolerated.

• Cooperation with Directors and Student Interns: Participants are expected to pay attention to and follow the instructions of the Camp Directors and Student Interns. For the safety and well being of other participants, disruptive and distracting behavior that affects the general order of the camp, whether intentional or not, will not be tolerated.

• Cell Phone Use: Participants will not use cell phones during instructional periods, rehearsals, or performances. Cell phones must remain inside their dance or gym bag.

• Self-Destructive Behavior/Dangerous Behavior: Participants who verbalize or demonstrate self-destructive or dangerous behavior to others will be immediately dismissed from the camp.

• Destruction of Property: Participants will respect the building, grounds, trees, bushes, flowers and other planted or natural foliage, costumes, props, sets, and all other playhouse property including the property of other participants. Vandalism, stealing, defacing of any property while on ACA grounds is prohibited.

• Dismissal: Drugs, alcohol, tobacco and weapons will not be tolerated.

• Parental Conduct: Parents are to conduct themselves in a professional manner towards all campers, high school or college interns, and artistic staff. They are also expected to notify the camp director of any situation which they feel needs to be addressed and allow the camp director to take necessary action to remedy any complaint. At no time should a parent address another camper or another parent about a disciplinary issue. Parents who fail to conduct themselves professionally will be asked to remove their child from the camp.

• No Refund Policy: There is NO REFUND for a participant who is removed from the program for violating the Code of Conduct. The NO REFUND policy also applies to participants who withdraw voluntarily with or without notice.

I have reviewed the above code of conduct with my child and understand that, at the discretion of the camp director, violations of the code of conduct may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from camp.
