ACA 2018 Summer Week of the Arts
Week One Classes June 4th -9th
(ACA parents should ask about discounts for students enrolled for the 2018-2019 school year)

1. Puppet Camp I (Grades 1 - 3) Monday - Friday / 9:00 - 11:45 - Mrs. Toni Ahrens
   Campers complete the crafting of a personal puppet, learn skills of puppet performance, perform in a puppet theater for guests, and take their puppets home. $115

2. Puppet Camp II (Grades 4 on up) Monday - Friday / 12:15 - 3:00 - Mrs. Toni Ahrens
   Campers complete the crafting of a personal puppet, learn more advanced skills of puppet performance, perform in a puppet theater for guests, and take home their puppet. $115

3. Hebrew Camp (Grades 4 - 8) Monday-Friday / 9:00 - 11:45 - Mrs. Sabrina Osborne
   Campers will learn the Hebrew alphabet, identify Hebrew letters and their sounds, build a Hebrew vocabulary and sing a few traditional Hebrew songs. In addition they will experience the Biblical feasts of Leviticus 23, (Passover, First Fruits and Booths) and will experience the ceremony of opening Sabbath. $115

4. Sewing Camp (Grades 3 - 6) Monday-Friday / 12:15 - 3:00 - Mrs. Cheryl Kenney
   Campers will learn basic sewing skills and make a variety of fun projects by hand. Each camper will make her own sewing kit to use in camp and to take home at the end of the week along with their completed projects. Sewing on buttons, embellishments, making casing and reading and cutting out patterns are all a part of the course. Some projects include a T-shirt pillow, water bottle holder, lavender scented mask, and hot pads. $115

5. Small Business Adventure (Grades 4-12) Monday - Friday / 12:15 - 3:00 - Mrs. Christi Rowland
   This session will empower critical thinking through entrepreneurship. Once students are taught the specific lessons of money management and business organizational skills, they will apply their skills toward building a business. The class will actually form a small marketing plan, then manufacture, advertise, and sell the product! $115
6. American Girl Books (Grades 3 - 8) Monday - Friday / 9:00 - 11:45
Mrs. Melissa Woods

Each day campers will discover a period of American history through the eyes of an American girl. We will be experiencing American history with stories, games, crafts, and snacks. Dressing the part enhances the experience, but it is not required. Pre-reading a selected American Girl book for each day would make connections and experiences more relatable. Titles are Meet Kaya, Meet Felicity, Meet Kirsten, Meet Kit and Meet Molly. $115

7. Stagecraft (Grades 7 - 12) Monday - Friday / 9:00 - 3:00 - Mr. Kirk Post
Campers will learn the basics of set design while they help create the set and major properties for Summer Week of the Arts three productions. Students should dress modestly, but wear clothing that is acceptable for painting and crafting. They will be given two free tickets to the Seussical production. $190 (See Week 2 flyer for more information) (Please bring a sack lunch)

8. Pajama Party (Grades K-3) Monday - Friday / 9:00 - 11:45
Mrs. Gale Post and Miss Breana White

Students will learn a mini-musical that they will perform for guests on Friday at 7:00. Each student receives a cast T-shirt and two free tickets to the performance, and additional tickets will be made available. $115 (See Week 2 flyer for more information)

9. Music Master Class (Grades 5-10) Monday - Friday / 12:15 - 3:00
Mrs. Gale Post and Miss Emma Aspenson

Students will learn advanced skills in character singing using songs from the musical Annie. They will perform before guests on Friday at 7:00. Each camper receives a cast T-shirt and two free tickets to the performance, (additional tickets are available). $120 (See Week 2 flyer for more information)
